Missionaries To Lithuania

...whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Co 10:31

Pastor and praying friends,

The holidays are come and gone. Things have settled down and it is time to get back on the road. This past holiday season was very special for us, as it was my wife's first Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Years with my family! We have been married for almost 10 years now, and this was the first time our whole family has been together for the holidays in at least twelve years.

We are happy to get back on the road again! We have four meetings for the remainder of January, the first one being a missions conference! The great thing about our meetings this month is that we get to go South for the winter!! We are going to try and stay in the Southern states for about five to six months. We have some friends that has invited us to stay with them in Louisiana for as long as we need, so that will be a blessing!! We will get to see some old friends and visit many other churches in their area!

I am currently calling Virginia for August and on, and hoping we will be able to stay in that area, going North as time goes on. I know that it isn't always the best idea to plan on heading North in the Fall and Winter, but if the Lord provides meetings there, we will go. Plus I don't think to many missionaries will be calling those areas for November and on. The Lord kept us safe in Montana and North Dakota this past February, and He can do it again!! If anyone knows of a church that they would recommend that we call in that area (Virginia, Pennsylvania, etc), please let me know! I have learned while on deputation to take all the help I can get!!

We had two more churches commit to taking us on for support last month!! Their commitments will put us up to about 12% support!! We are so blessed to have all of you praying for us and helping us financially when you are able!! Please pray that we are able to fill up our schedule and for more opportunities to witness to the lost!

Thank you and God bless!!
